NOTICE TO JOINT STOCK COMPANIES.

THE following section, numbered 161, of the "Companies Act, 1897," relative to the issue of a free miner's certificate is published for the information of JOINT STOCK COMPANIES.

JAMES BAKER,
Minister of Mines.

*Provincial Secretary's Office,
14th May, 1897.*

161. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 4 of the "Mineral Act, 1896," or section 4 of the "Placer Mining Act, 1891," or elsewhere in the said Acts or other the mining laws of the Province, no free miner's certificate shall be issued to a Joint Stock Company for a longer period than one year, and such certificate shall date from the 30th day of June in each year; and every free miner's certificate held by a Joint Stock Company at the passing of this Act shall be valid and existing until and shall expire on the 30th day of June, 1897. Upon applying to renew any such certificate on or before said 30th day of June, the Joint Stock Company shall be entitled to a rebate of a proportionate amount of the fee paid for a certificate heretofore issued according to the further time for which it would but for this section have been valid.

NOTICE.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the Government of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway purpose sending, in the summer of this current year, a balloon expedition towards the North Pole for exploration in the interests of science. The balloon will convey a party of three Swedish scientists, who have been making explorations towards the North Pole by these means, namely, Mr. Salomon August Andrée, aged 43; Mr. Nils Strindberg, aged 25; and Mr. Knut

Hjalmar Ferdinand Fraenkel, aged 27; or one of those replaced by Mr. Gustaf Wilhelm Emanuel Swedenborg, aged 28. It is understood that the expedition will start from Spitzbergen about the 1st of July next.

The Swedish and Norwegian Minister at the Court of St. James having, in the name of his Government, invoked the assistance of Her Majesty's Government with a view to making it generally known in the British possessions extending towards the Arctic regions that the expedition in question will be attempted, and the Swedish Government being anxious also that the project should be made known to the authorities in other parts of Canada and to the general public in the Dominion through the medium of the press, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies has requested His Excellency's Government as far as possible to meet the wishes of the Government of His Swedish and Norwegian Majesty in this matter.

Accordingly, Her Majesty's loyal subjects throughout this Dominion are hereby notified in the premises and are requested to give the explorers, should an opportunity present itself, all the help in their power. If the balloon be seen only and no communication be had with the exploring party, it is requested that the following particulars may be noted and communicated either to a local newspaper or to some learned body, namely: the day and the hour in which the balloon was seen, the direction of the balloon, and the direction of the wind.

Should any accident befall the explorers and should they arrive in any locality having lost the balloon, the inhabitants are asked to give them all possible assistance.

A. CAMPBELL REDDIE,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.

*Provincial Secretary's Office,
13th May, 1897.*

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, VICTORIA.

27th April, 1897.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS representations by certain holders of mineral claims have been made to the Minister of Mines to the effect that, in consequence of the early winter of 1896-1897 and the depth of snow that still covers the higher lands, the said claim-holders have been unable to comply with the provisions of section 24 of the "Mineral Act, 1896," and to perform the annual assessment work required thereunder within the time prescribed by the Act; and

Whereas it is desirable, with a view to obviate this difficulty, that an order granting discretionary permission to Gold Commissioners throughout the Province to extend the time for the completion of assessment work on such mineral claims as have been found to be unworkable for the reason aforesaid, be made;

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Mines,

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, under the provisions of section 161 of the "Mineral Act, 1896," and by and with the advice of His Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, that is to say:—

It shall be lawful during the current season, for the Gold Commissioners throughout the Province, to grant such applications for an extension of time in which to complete assessment work as in their discretion the circumstances of each case warrant.

JAMES BAKER,

my27

Clerk, Executive Council.

FERRY—WEST KOOTENAY DISTRICT.

SEALED PROPOSALS, properly endorsed, will be received by the Honourable Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works up to noon of Thursday, 17th June next, for the right to maintain and operate a ferry across the Columbia River at Waterloo Landing, and within a limit of two miles above and below that place, for a term of five years from 1st July next.

Proposals must give a description of the size and kind of boat intended to be used, the mode of propelling the same, and the various rates of toll proposed to be collected, and give the names of two persons who are willing to execute a bond for $500 to secure the faithful carrying out of the contract.

The competition will be on the rate of tolls and the amount of bonus to be paid to the Government annually for the exclusive privilege of operating a ferry. A certified cheque to cover the amount of the first year's bonus must accompany the proposal.

All officers of the Government, with their animals and freight, to pass free.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding rule, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

55. The expenses and costs attending on Private Bills giving any exclusive privilege, or for any object of profit, or private, corporate, or individual advantage; or for amending, extending, or enlarging any former Acts, in such manner as to confer additional powers, ought not to fall on the public; accordingly, the parties seeking to obtain a Private Bill shall pay the Clerk of the House the sum of one hundred dollars before the first reading thereof; and an additional sum of one hundred dollars immediately after the second reading thereof. And no such Bill shall be read a first time, or committed after second reading, until the fees payable on the first or second reading respectively are paid to the Clerk, and all such Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in Imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10½ inches by 7½ inches, and 100 copies thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be re-printed by the promoters thereof.

Authority to act as Parliamentary Agent may be obtained on application to the Clerk of the House and upon payment of the sum of five dollars.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 487.

CERTIFICATE OF THE REGISTRATION OF A FOREIGN COMPANY.

"COMPANIES' ACT," PART IV., AND AMENDING ACTS.

"New Fraser River Gold Mines, Limited" (Foreign).

Registered the 8th day of May, 1897.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I have this day registered the "New Fraser River Gold Mines, Limited" (Foreign), under the "Companies Act," Part IV., "Registration of Foreign Companies," and amending Acts.

The head office of the said Company is situated in England.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire in British Columbia and elsewhere, by purchase, lease, concession, exchange, or otherwise, mining property, claims, water rights, lands, mines, mining rights and claims, minerals, ores, mills, stamps, smelting and other works for treating ores and minerals, and rendering them marketable, metals, including also all kinds of building, machinery, and plant useful or supposed to be useful in mining, milling, treating, or reducing ores or minerals, and any concessions, grants, decrees, claims, rights, or privileges whatsoever which may seem to the Company capable of being turned to account, and to work, develop, carry out, exercise, and turn to account the same, and to dispose of any such concessions, grants, decrees, claims, or privileges:

(b.) To adopt and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement dated the 2nd day of March, 1897, and made between the New Goldfields of British Columbia, Limited, of the one part, and Samuel William Holliday, for and on behalf of the Company, of the other part:

(c.) To search for, win, get, quarry, reduce, amalgamate, dress, refine, and prepare for market, auriferous quartz and ore, and other mineral substances (whether auriferous or not) and precious stones, and generally to carry on any metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(d.) To carry on all kinds of exploration business and, in particular in relation to mines and minerals, to seek for and secure openings for capital, and with a view to any of the objects aforesaid to prospect, enquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, commissions, experts, or other agents:

(e.) To carry on all kinds of promotion business and in particular to form, constitute, float, lend money to, assist, and control any companies, partnerships, associations, or undertakings whatsoever:

(f.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, licence, or otherwise, absolutely or conditionally, the rights, either generally or exclusively, over any area or areas, of or in all or any patent rights or processes, or mechanical or other contrivances useful or supposed to be useful for any of the purposes of the Company, and to deal with or dispose of the same or any interest therein respectively:

(g.) To lay out towns and villages on the lands acquired or controlled by the Company, and to construct, maintain, alter, make, and work railways, tramways, telegraph lines, canals, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, roads, streets, hotels, boarding houses, dwelling houses, factories, shops, stores, gas and water works, piers, wharves, buildings, machinery, and other works and appliances of every nature and description which may be expedient or useful, or deemed to be expedient or useful, for the purposes of the Company, and to contribute to the cost of making, providing, and carrying on and working the same:

(h.) To carry on any business the carrying on of which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to the development of any property in which it is interested:

(i.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Company:

(j.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, settle, improve, colonize, farm, and cultivate lands and hereditaments in British Columbia and elsewhere:

(k.) To prospect, explore, and develop the resources of the said lands and hereditaments by building, planting, clearing, mining and otherwise dealing with the same, to cut and sell timber, and generally to mine and carry on all sorts of mining operations in British Columbia or any other part of the globe:

(l.) To stock the same or other lands, and to breed and deal in all kinds of stock, cattle, sheep, and produce:

(m.) To work and carry on all or any mines, works, and properties from time to time in possession of the Company in such manner as the directors for the time being may determine; to erect all necessary mills and machinery and appliances, smelting works, laboratories, workshops, dwelling houses, and other buildings; to construct, maintain, and alter canals, railways, water-courses, tramways, telegraph lines, or any other lines or system of communication, whether by telegram, telephone, phonograph, phonophone, or otherwise, by electricity, or by pneumatic force or otherwise, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, gas and water works, drainage works, irrigation works, wharves, piers, and other works of every nature and description; to purchase, rent, hire, or charter waggons, steam or sailing ships; to enter into and carry out such contracts and arrangements as may be deemed necessary and desirable to enable the Company to carry on its business and for the general conduct and management of its affairs, and the doing of all such other things as may be found incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, whether in British Columbia, Great Britain, or elsewhere:

(n.) To buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects capable of being used or required by the Company or its workmen, or by any other persons who may settle on the property of the Company, or by others, and for that purpose to carry on the business of a general shopkeeper or merchant:

(o.) To purchase, build, charter, equip, load (either on commission or otherwise), sell, repair, let out to hire, and trade with steam or other ships, boats and vessels of all kinds; to carry on the business of carriers by land and water:

(p.) To acquire, by grant, purchase, or otherwise, concessions of any property or privileges from any government, British, Colonial, or foreign, and to perform and fulfil the terms and conditions:

(q.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or law or order of any Colonial or foreign legislature or government for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(r.) To promote, form, and register other companies in England or in any colony, dependency, foreign country, state, or territory, for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for all or any of the objects mentioned in this Memorandum, or for advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests thereof, and to take or otherwise acquire and to underwrite and hold shares, debentures, or other securities in or of any such company, and to guarantee the payment of any debentures or other securities issued by any such company:

(s.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(t.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any such company; to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly societies:

(u.) To carry on all kinds of financial or banking business, and in particular to negotiate loans and advances; to offer for subscription, place, buy, deal in, make merchantable, sell, and dispose of ores, minerals, goods, bullion, specie, and valuables of all kinds, and merchandise generally, in British Columbia, Great Britain, or elsewhere, and to receive money on deposit, and to collect revenue of all kinds:

(v.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court, where necessary; to amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(iv.) To make, accept, indorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments; to lend money, and in particular to persons having dealing with the Company; to raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital or any specified portion thereof; to guarantee the performance of contracts by members of, or persons having dealings with, the Company:

(x.) To acquire patent rights and privileges in the United Kingdom or any other country or Colony or State for any purposes deemed to be useful for the Company, and to re-sell the same or turn the same to account by manufacturing thereunder, granting licenses or otherwise:

(y.) To lend money to any company, partnership, person, or association upon security of their or his undertaking, property, estate, assets, and effects, or any part thereof, upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, and to take such security either in the shape of mortgages, mortgage debentures, or in any other form, or to lend money in British Columbia or Great Britain or elsewhere with or without security; to make donations to such persons and in such cases as may seem expedient, and to subscribe for any purposes, whether charitable or benevolent, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(z.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses of or in connection with the formation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company, either in cash or in shares of the Company, either wholly or partly paid up:

(aa.) To establish and maintain agencies of this Company in any colony or foreign state, and to procure the Company to be registered or incorporated in any colony or foreign state:

(bb.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, either alone or in partnership or in conjunction with any person or other association, and either as principals or agents, and including a power to pay brokerage or commission for services rendered in obtaining or guaranteeing or underwriting capital for the Company or otherwise.

The capital stock of the said Company is £75,000, divided into 75,000 shares of the par value of £1 each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 8th day of May, 1897.

No. 477.

CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION OF A FOREIGN COMPANY.

"COMPANIES' ACT," PART IV., AND AMENDING ACTS.

"British Columbia Electric Railway Company, Limited" (Foreign).

Registered the 5th day of May, 1897.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I have this day registered the "British Columbia Electric Railway Company, Limited" (Foreign), under the "Companies Act," Part IV., "Registration of Foreign Companies," and amending Acts.

The head office of the said Company is situated in England.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To acquire and take over as a going concern all the freehold and leasehold hereditaments, and all the businesses and undertakings, franchises, rights, powers, contracts, and privileges, and all other the assets (including all books, documents and plans) of the Company called the Consolidated Railway Company (which was incorporated by an Act of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia), and the full benefit and advantage thereof on the terms and conditions specified in an agreement dated the 14th of December, 1896, and made between The Yorkshire Guarantee and Securities Corporation, Limited, of the one part, and The Colonial Railway and General Investment Company, Limited, of the other part, and a further agreement dated the 31st day of March, 1897, and made between the Colonial Railway and General Investment Company, Limited, of the one part, and Edgar Assheton Bennett, as trustee for and on behalf of the British Columbia Electric Railway, Limited, of the other part, either with or without modification in each case.

(2.) To carry on the businesses and undertakings formerly carried on by the said Consolidated Railway Company.

(3.) To equip, complete, maintain and work by electricity, steam, horse, or other mechanical power, all railways and tramways belonging to the Company or in which the Company may be interested.

(4.) To carry on the business of railway, tramway, omnibus and van proprietors, and carriers of passengers and goods, and of manufacturers of and dealers in railways, tramways, carriages, trucks, locomotives, accumulators, dynamos, and other chattels and effects, and conveniences required for making, maintaining, equipping, and working railways and tramways by electricity, water, steam, oil, or any other force or power.

(5.) To enter into contracts with any other Company or persons as to interchange of traffic, running powers or otherwise, which the Company may think expedient.

(6.) To make and enter into any agreement or covenant for the paving, macadamizing, repairing and grading of any streets or highways, and the construction, opening, and repairing of drains or sewers, and the laying of gas or water pipes in any streets or highways.

(7.) To enter into any agreement or covenant as to the location of any railways, or tramways or other works belonging to or carried out by the Company, and as to the pattern of rails to be used, the time and speed of running the cars, the amount of fares to be paid by the passengers, the time in which the works are to be commenced, the manner of proceeding with the same, the time for completion, and generally for the safety and convenience of passengers, the conduct of the agents and servants of the Company, and the non-obstruction or impeding of the ordinary traffic.

(8.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company.

(9.) To construct, improve, maintain, and manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out, or control thereof.

(10.) To carry on the business of a telephone, telegraph, and electric light, heat and power supply company, and in particular to establish, work, manage, control and regulate telephone exchanges and works, power houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating and supply of electric light, heat and motive powers (by electricity, water, steam, oil, or any other force or power), and for the transmission of the same, and to transmit and facilitate the transmission of telegraphic and telephonic communications and messages, and to undertake the lighting of towns, streets, buildings and other places, and the supply of electric, heat and motive power for public or private purposes.

(11.) To construct, maintain, lay down, carry out, work, sell, let on hire, and deal in telephones, and all kinds of works, machinery, apparatus, conveniences, and things capable of being used in connection with any of these objects, and in particular any cables, wires, lines, stations, exchanges, reservoirs, accumulators, lamps, meters and engines.

(12.) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired.

(13.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into any agreement with any such person or company for leasing, hiring or purchasing the plant and rolling stock belonging to any such person or company, or for making running arrangements or amalgamating with any such person or company.

(14.) Generally, to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business.

(15.) To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

(16.) To enter into any arrangements with any authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

(17.) To obtain, or promote any Act, Bill, Provisional Order, or other Order or Authority of the Imperial Parliament, or of any Legislative Assembly, or any government or authority, supreme, municipal, or otherwise, or of any Court for enabling the Company to give effect to the provisions of these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to oppose any Act, Bill or Provisional Order which may seem directly or indirectly opposed to the Company's interests.

(18.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

(19.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons.

(20.) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of, money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, or the income thereof (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities.

(21.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business.

(22.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

(23.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property, undertaking and rights of the Company, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(24.) To promote any company for the purpose of its acquiring any or all of the property and liabilities of this Company, and for any other purpose which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

(25.) To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support of, associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general or useful object.

(26.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(27.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in British Columbia and elsewhere abroad, and to enter into arrangements with any governments or authorities that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

(28.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The capital stock of the said Company is two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, divided into twenty-five thousand shares of the par value of ten pounds each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 5th day of May, 1897.

(f.) To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, and erect, work, use and maintain all reservoirs, dams, mills, mill sites, plant, gold crushing and other machinery, engines and rolling and other stock and material of every kind requisite for the carrying on of the business of the Company, and to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to erect any buildings, and also to acquire any privileges or easements in or over any lands for the purpose of such business, or any works, in connection therewith:

(g.) To purchase or acquire any other business of the like character to the business to be transacted by the Company, or any interest therein, and to pay for the same, and all property and rights of whatever kind acquired by the Company, in cash or in shares or debentures of the Company, or partly in one of such modes and partly in the other or others:

(h.) To mortgage by the issue of bonds, mortgages and debentures, or any or either of them, and upon such terms as may be thought expedient, all or any of the lands and other real and personal property and assets whatsoever of the Company:

(i.) To borrow money and issue bonds, mortgages and other debentures and debenture stock, or any or either of them, charged on all or any of the property of the Company, or upon its income, revenue or profits as security for the money so borrowed; or in payment or satisfaction of any obligation of the Company, and to draw, accept, indorse and issue bills of exchange and promissory notes and other negotiable instruments:

(j.) To invest the capital of the Company for any of the purposes aforesaid, in building on or otherwise improving, developing or adding to the marketable value of the lands, deposits, mines or other properties from time to time acquired by the Company, and to make, maintain and use such works as the Company may think necessary or expedient for any of the purposes aforesaid:

(k.) To amalgamate, unite and absorb into this Company any other company or association, or the members of any other company or association, whether formed in British Columbia or other part of Canada, or in Great Britain or elsewhere, for objects similar, analogous or subsidiary to any of the subjects of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to form, promote, establish, and bring out or join, and assist in the formation or establishment of any such company or association, and to subscribe for, acquire, hold and deal with shares, debentures or interest therein, and to make, sell, lease, grant licences of or dispose of to such other company or association, or to any other person or persons, all or any part of the property of this Company, and to accept in payment or part payment for the same cash or shares, debentures, bonds or obligations of any such company or association, and to pay or concur in paying any commission, brokerage or other remuneration to any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place any of the shares, debentures or securities of this Company or any other company as aforesaid:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which this Company is authorised to carry on:

(m.) To sell, lease and dispose of all or any of the property of the Company, and to accept in payment for the same money or shares, bonds or debentures of any other company, but so that such shares, bonds or debentures shall be fully paid up and involve no liability to this Company, and to hold such shares, bonds, debentures, or to divide the purchase consideration received upon the sale, or dispose of all or any property of the Company between and among the members of the Company by way of profit or dividend, and whether the sum be in the form of cash, shares, debentures or other securities.

In testimony whereof the parties have made, signed and acknowledged these present (in duplicate) on the 8th day of May, A.D. 1897.

Made, signed and acknowledged (in duplicate) by the said Richard Hall, George L. Milne and James McConnell, at the City of Victoria, the 8th day of May, A.D. 1897, before me,

[L.S.] W. H. MASON,

A Notary Public in and for the Province of British Columbia.

I hereby certify that Richard Hall, George L. Milne and James McConnell, personally known to me, appeared before me and acknowledged to me that they are the persons mentioned in the annexed instrument as the makers thereof, and whose names are subscribed thereto as parties that they know the contents thereof, and that they executed the same voluntarily.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, at Victoria, British Columbia, this eighth day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

WE, Manuel Meiss, Andrew Calderwood and James Murphy, all of the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, do hereby certify (in duplicate) that we desire to form, under the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1878" (Provincial), being Part II. of Chapter 21, of the "Consolidated Acts, 1888," and amending Acts, a Company as hereinafter mentioned.

1. The corporate name of the Company shall be the "Myers Flat Gold Mining Company, Limited Liability."

2. The registered office of the Company shall be at the City of Victoria, British Columbia.

3. The capital stock of the Company shall be one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), divided into four hundred thousand (400,000) shares of twenty-five (25) cents each.

4. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty (50) years.

5. The number of Trustees who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months shall be three, and their names are the said Manuel Meiss, Andrew Calderwood and James Murphy.

6. A stockholder is not individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the corporation, but the liability of a stockholder is limited to his proportion (based upon the amount of his respective shares) to assessments legally levied, and the charges thereon, if advertised as delinquent during the time that he is a stockholder, upon a share or shares of which he is the holder, as shown by the stockholders' register book of the corporation. Assessments and charges thereon, when taken collectively, shall not exceed in the aggregate the value in dollars printed or shown upon each share when issued.

7. The objects for which the Company is established are as follows:—

(a.) To purchase the "Elephant," "Jumbo," "Mammoth," "Mastodon," and "Nepawa" mineral claims, situate at Myers Flat, Fairview District, in the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights and metalliferous land in British Columbia or elsewhere, and any interest therein, and to explore, work, exercise, develop and turn the same to account:

(c.) To search for, prospect, examine and explore mines and ground supposed to contain precious metals or minerals of any kind, and to search for and obtain information with regard to mines, mining districts and localities:

(d.) To carry on the business of quarrymen, quarry proprietors, timber merchants, lumber merchants, engineers, manufacturers of mineral or metallic produce, shippers and general merchants and traders, or any business connected with, or auxiliary or incidental to, any of the said businesses, and to acquire and work any patent or patent rights relating to or calculated to promote, directly or indirectly, any of the objects of the Company, and to grant licences for the use of the said patents or any of them, and to assign or dispose of the same:

(e.) To raise, crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(f.) To buy, sell, refine and deal in bullion, specie, coin and precious metals, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations, or required by workmen and others employed by the Company:

(g.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control and superintend any roads, ways, tramways, railways, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, sawmills, crushing works, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, ships, and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations:

(h.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges, easements or licences which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(o.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(p.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, or either alone or in conjunction with others:

(u.) To issue fully paid or partly paid shares of the Company in payment or part payment for the purchase of any property to be acquired by the Company, or for any other purpose:

(v.) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal or otherwise, which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think fit or desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(w.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(x.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any foreign country or place, and to procure the Company to be domiciled in accordance with the laws and constitution of any country or state in which any of its operations may be carried on:

(y.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(z.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive, or such as the Company may think to be incidental or conducive, to the attainment of the above objects.

Made, signed and acknowledged (in duplicate) by the above-named Manuel Meiss, and Andrew Calderwood, and James Murphy, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, this 7th day of May, A. D. 1897, before me,

CERTIFICATE OF THE REGISTRATION OF A FOREIGN COMPANY.

"COMPANIES ACT," PART IV., AND AMENDING ACTS.

"Corinth Mines, Limited" (Foreign).

Registered the 5th day of May, 1897.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I have this day registered the "Corinth Mines, Limited" (Foreign), under the "Companies Act," Part IV., "Registration of Foreign Companies," and Amending Acts.

The head office of the said Company is situated in England.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect, with such modifications (if any) as may be agreed upon, the agreement mentioned in clause 3 of the Company's Articles of Association;

(b.) To acquire any concessions, grants, rights, powers, privileges, claims or contracts from any company, State, sovereign or authority which may seem to the Company capable of being turned to account, and to work, develop, carry out, exercise and turn to account the same:

(c.) To acquire by grant, selection, purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to develop the resources of and turn to account any lands and any rights over or connected with land belonging to or in which the Company is interested:

(d.) To locate, peg off, or acquire by grant, selection, purchase, lease, or otherwise, any mining claims, mines, mining rights, and metalliferous land, and to explore, work, develop, and turn to account the same:

(e.) To search for, crush, win, get, quarry, wash, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate, and prepare for market argentiferous and auriferous quartz and ore, lead, coal, ironstone, and other metals and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(f.) To buy, sell, barter, import, export, manipulate, prepare for market and deal in merchandise of all kinds, and generally to carry on business as merchants, importers and exporters:

(g.) To carry on business as miners, merchants, store-keepers, carriers, builders, engineers and contractors, and any other kind of business which seems calculated, directly or indirectly, to further the working and development of, or turn to account, any concessions, rights, or property of the Company, or otherwise to benefit the Company:

(h.) To lend money upon the security of or to invest in or purchase, or otherwise to acquire and hold, sell, transfer, pledge and deal in the mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, securities, scrip, funds, preference or other shares or stocks of any Sovereign, State, Government, municipality, or other public authority, whether in the United Kingdom, or in any colony or foreign State, or of any corporation, company, association, trust, undertaking, or body incorporated or established under British, colonial, or foreign law, or to any partnership or person:

(i.) To acquire any such securities or investments as before-mentioned by original subscription, tender, participation in syndicates, or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to make payments thereon as called up, or otherwise to acquire any such securities or investments in excess of the moneys for the time being proposed to be invested, and to sell or otherwise dispose of any excess thereof; to subscribe for the same, either conditionally or otherwise, and generally to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any securities or investments of the Company, acquired or agreed so to be; to invest in or acquire by re-purchase or otherwise any securities or investments of the kinds before enumerated, and to vary the securities and investments of the Company from time to time:

(j.) To promote and pay the expenses of promoting joint stock and other companies, and to act as agents for such companies and any corporations, States, or municipalities, whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, in the issue of their shares, stocks, bonds, debentures and debenture stock, and the undertaking and guaranteeing of such issues, and the guaranteeing to the holders of the due payment of the principal and interest of debentures and debenture stock, and the making of loans upon the security thereof, either to private persons or public companies:

(k.) To buy or otherwise acquire, hold in trust, make advances upon, sell or otherwise dispose of, any of the securities or investments of the kinds before-mentioned:

(l.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, rights or privileges which the Company may think suitable or convenient for any purposes of its business, and to erect and construct buildings and works of all kinds:

(m.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for any of the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company, calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(n.) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of money, and for those purposes to mortgage or charge the undertaking and all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, present or after acquired, including uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds or other obligations, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments:

(o.) To sell, let, develop, dispose of, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incident to the formation, registration and advertising of or raising money for the Company, and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares, and to apply, at the cost of the Company, to Parliament for any extension of the Company's powers:

(q.) To carry out all or any of the foregoing objects as principals or agents, or in partnership or conjunction with any other person, firm, association, or company, and in any part of the world:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The capital stock of the said Company is one hundred thousand pounds, divided into one hundred thousand shares of the par value of one pound each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 5th day of May, 1897.

(h.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(i.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve any land which, or any interest in which, may belong to the Company; to deal with any farm or other products of any lands of the Company; to lay out sites or towns or villages on any lands of the Company, and to carry on the business of general traders for the purpose of supplying goods to any employees of the Company, or to the occupiers of any of its lands, or to any other persons:

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To acquire, and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or association or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration of the same, to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise, with any person or Company, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company. And to lend money to guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take, or otherwise acquire, shares and security of any such company, and to sell, hold and re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(o.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular, any mines, mining rights, lands, timber lands or limits, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade:

(p.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances for the purposes of this Company, on stock, shares and other securities, and on property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same, and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To enter into any arrangements with the Government, Dominion or Provincial, or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or if deemed advisable dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(s.) To obtain any Act of Parliament to enable the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modifications of the Company's constitutions, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(t.) To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(u.) To procure this Company to be registered or otherwise recognised as a body corporate in any other Province or country:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(w.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing, any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or any other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(x.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company (including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company upon any terms), with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company:

(y.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

4. No shareholder shall be individually liable for the debts and obligations of the Company, but the liability of each shareholder shall be limited to the calls and assessments to be levied upon the shares held by him.

5. The capital stock of the Company is one million dollars, divided into one million shares of one dollar each.

6. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

7. The number of the Trustees who shall manage the affairs of the Company for the first three months shall be five, and their names are, the said James F. McLaughlin, Robert Scott, and John J. CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

WE, James Stewart Murray, of the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, Accountant; Walter Joselyn Quinlan, of the said City of Victoria, Dentist; Alexander F. McCrimmon, of the said City of Victoria, Merchant; George L. Courtenay, of the said City of Victoria, Accountant; James Maynard, of the said City of Victoria, Merchant; Arthur Everton Belfry, of the said City of Victoria, Accountant; Ernest Amos Hall, of the said City of Victoria, Doctor of Medicine, do hereby certify (in duplicate) that we desire to form, under the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1878," (Provincial) being Part II. of chapter 21 of the "Consolidated Acts, 1888," and amending Acts, a Company as hereinafter mentioned.

1. The corporate name of the Company shall be The Thistle Gold Mining Company, Limited Liability.

2. The objects for which the Company is established are as follows:—

(a.) To purchase the Ivy Mineral Claim, situate on Goat Mountain, in the Goat River District, West Kootenay, British Columbia, and to prospect, work, explore, develop and turn to account the said mineral claim:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and prospect, explore, work, exercise, develop and turn to account any mines, metalliferous lands, mining rights, prospectors' or other claims in British Columbia:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary for the purposes of its business:

(d.) To raise, crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market ore, metal, and mineral substances of all kinds, whether the property of the Company or not, in British Columbia, and to carry on any metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, or which may seem capable of being usefully or profitably carried on in connection with the other business of the Company, and to sell, dispose of and deal in any ore, metal or mineral substances, either in a manufactured state or otherwise, and any minerals or substances resulting from, or to be obtained in the process of smelting, refining or manufacturing the same, and either free or in combination with other substances:

(e.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control and superintend all or any trails, roadways, tramways, railways, reservoirs, water-courses, bridges, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, ships, boats, and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid and take part in such operations:

(f.) To mortgage the uncalled capital of the Company, subject to the provisions of the Act:

(g.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any property of the Company:

(h.) To sell the property and undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, at such times or time, in such manner, and on such terms, and for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(i.) To amalgamate with or acquire the business and liabilities of any other companies or company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To sell and dispose of the Company's stock from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, for such price, or in exchange for such property, as the trustees may think fit:

(k.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any place or country:

(l.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them:

3. The capital of the Company is three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($350,000), divided into three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000) shares of one dollar each.

4. The corporate existence of the Company shall continue for fifty years.

5. The number of the trustees who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months shall be seven, and their names are James Stewart Murray, Walter Joselyn Quinlan, Alexander F. McCrimmon, George L. Courtenay, James Maynard, Arthur Everton Belfry, and Ernest Amos Hall.

6. The principal place of business of the Company is located in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

7. A stockholder is not individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the Corporation, but the liability of the stockholder is limited to his proportion (based upon the amount of his respective shares) to assessments legally levied and charges thereon, if advertised as delinquent during the time that he is a stockholder, upon the share or shares of which he is the holder, as shown by the shareholders' register book of the Corporation. Assessments and charges thereon when taken collectively shall not exceed in the aggregate the value in dollars printed or shown upon each share when issued.

Made, signed and acknowledged (in duplicate) by the above named James Stewart Murray, Walter Joselyn Quinlan, Alexander F. McCrimmon, George L. Courtenay, James Maynard, Arthur Everton Belfry and Ernest Amos Hall, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, this sixth day of May, 1897, before me,

1. The name of the Company shall be "The Red Star Mining and Development Company, Limited Liability."

2. The capital stock of the Company shall be $250,000.00, divided into 1,000,000 shares of twenty-five (25) cents each.

3. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

4. The number of Trustees who shall manage the affairs of the Company for the first three months shall be five, namely, James L. Card, Clarence H. De Beck, Harry J. Stubbs, Robie L. Reid and Henry J. A. Burnett.

5. The principal place of business shall be at the City of New Westminster, B.C.

6. The objects for which the Company is formed are:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire the mineral claim "Red Star," situated on the north side of Kaslo Creek, in the District of West Kootenay, in the Province of British Columbia, and to pay for the same either in money or fully paid up shares of this Company, and to prospect, work, explore, develop and turn to account the said mineral claim and property:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary for the purposes of its business:

(c.) To raise, crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, whether the property of the Company or not, and to sell, dispose of and deal in any ore, metal or mineral substances, either in manufactured state or otherwise, and any minerals or substances resulting from or to be obtained in the process of smelting, refining or manufacturing the same, and either free or in combination with other substances:

(d.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control and superintend any trails, roadways, tramways, railways, reservoirs, water-courses, bridges, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, ships, boats and other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid and take part in such operations:

(e.) To mortgage the uncalled capital of the Company:

(f.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incident to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares, and to apply, at the cost of the Company, to Parliament for any extension of the Company's powers:

(g.) To sell the property and undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, at such time or times, in such manner and on such terms, and for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any of the property of the Company:

(i.) To amalgamate with, or acquire the business and liabilities of, any other company or companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To sell and dispose of Company stock from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient, for such price or in exchange for such property as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To buy and sell the stock of this or any other company, and to buy and sell the prospects, mines, machinery or such other property as may be deemed expedient or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company, and otherwise to do general mining brokerage business:

(l.) To procure the Company to be registered in any place or country:

(m.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

7. No shareholder shall be individually liable for the debts or obligations of the Company, but the liability of the shareholders shall be limited to the calls and assessments to be legally levied upon the shares held by him.

8. The affairs of the Company shall be managed by the Directors. It shall not be lawful for the Directors to enter upon any work for the Company, or to give or award any contract on behalf of the Company, unless there shall be in the hands of the Treasurer of the Company, or lying to the credit of the Company in the bank at the time such work or contract is entered upon, a sum of money equal in amount to the liability to be imposed upon the Company by such work or contract, which sum of money shall be deemed to be set apart and appropriated for the discharge of such liability.

(m.) To enter into any agreement or agreements with any Government, supreme, local, municipal or otherwise, which may seem beneficial to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any subsidy, rights or privileges which the Company may deem it advisable to obtain, and to purchase any such subsidy, rights or privileges from any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights or privileges :

(n.) To sell, assign, transfer, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of or otherwise deal with all or any of the property or rights of the Company :

(o.) To borrow money upon and for that purpose to issue bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other obligations or securities of the Company, and to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing such debentures, bonds, bills of exchange, promissory notes, obligations or securities ; and such mortgage and mortgages may be in favour of such person or persons, corporation or corporations, as the majority of the trustees may decide upon : Provided, always, that the sum so borrowed shall not exceed the amount of the capital stock of the Company :

(p.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, privileges and liabilities of the Company, and for any other purpose which may seem either directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company :

(q.) To sell and dispose of the Company's stock from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient, for such price or in exchange for such property as the trustees or directors may think fit, and to issue any shares of the Company as fully or in part paid-up ; and to have and enforce a lien for the payment of any indebtedness upon the shares of its capital stock owned by any person who may be indebted to the corporation, and to prevent the transfer of any such shares until such indebtedness be paid :

(r.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated or recognised in any place or country :

(s.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of advertising of the Company and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares, and to apply, at the cost of the Company, to Parliament for any extension of the Company's powers :

(t.) To carry out any of its objects, either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by themselves or through any person or company acting as agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise :

(u.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to amalgamate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on, or about to carry on, business similar or in part to this Company :

(v.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of these objects :

(w.) To make any and all contracts affecting or concerning the property or business aforesaid as fully and completely as any natural person may contract with reference to his or their individual property or business.

8. The affairs of the Company shall be managed by the trustees or directors, but it shall not be lawful for the trustees or directors to enter upon work for the Company, or to give or award any contract on behalf of the Company for any work to be done for the Company, unless there shall be in the hands of the treasurer of the Company, or lying to the credit of the Company at its bank at the time such work is entered upon or such contract given or awarded, a sum of money equal in amount to the liability to be imposed upon the Company by such work or contract ; and when any contract has been given out or any work entered upon in accordance with this clause, so much of the moneys of the said Company as may be necessary to meet the liabilities to be incurred by the said Company in respect of such work or contract, shall be deemed to be set apart and appropriated for the discharge of such liability and shall not be taken into account in entering upon any further work for the Company or awarding any contract on the Company's behalf ; the intention of this clause being that the said Company shall not enter upon work or contract for which there shall not previously have been provided and in hand a sufficient amount of money to meet the liabilities incurred thereby.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

—OF THE—

British North-Western Development Company, Limited Liability.

WE, the undersigned, hereby desire to form a Company under the "Companies Act, 1890," and amending Acts.

1. The corporate name of the Company shall be "The British North-Western Development Company, Limited Liability."

2. The principal place of business of the said Company shall be at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

3. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

4. The capital stock of the Company shall be $10,000,000, divided in 10,000,000 shares of $1 each.

5. No shareholder shall be individually liable for the debts or obligations of the Company, but the liability of the shareholders shall be limited to the calls and assessments to be legally levied upon the shares held by him.

6. The number of directors who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months shall be three, and their names are George Lawson Milne, Physician; Alfred Cornelius Flumerfelt, and Wellington Jeffers Dowler, City Clerk.

7. The objects for which this Company is formed are:—

(a.) To purchase, lease, bond or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, lands, coal lands, mines, mineral claims, stone quarries, timber limits, leases, water rights, privileges and powers of any nature and description, and to hold, use, develop, work, manage, deal and sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or interest therein:

(b.) To prospect and locate mineral claims, to quarry, dig, mine, bore, excavate, log, cut, saw, and do all things necessary for the purpose of getting, raising, and procuring stone for building or other purposes, coal and other minerals, timber of any kind, petroleum or other oils, and for any of these purposes to procure, construct, erect, use and deal in machinery and appliances of any nature or description:

(c.) To improve in any way any lands belonging to, leased, used, held or occupied by the Company, and to erect and use mills, factories, smelters and buildings of any nature or description, and to establish, open and maintain stores, trading posts and supply stations, and generally to carry on in any part of the Province of British Columbia all and every kind of business which the majority of the shareholders shall think advisable for the Company:

(d.) To use steam, water, gas, electricity or any other agent now known, or which may hereafter be discovered, as a lighting, heating or motive power:

(e.) To buy, sell and deal in all kinds of goods and manufactures, products and commodities, wares and merchandise:

(f.) To promote immigration and colonization enterprises, and to do all things necessary to secure reduced transportation rates on railways and steamers, and to locate and settle any person, or number of persons, in or upon any lands belonging to the Company or otherwise:

(g.) To build, equip, maintain, operate, buy, lease or bond railroads, tramways, ferries, roads, trails or other means of transportation:

(h.) To purchase, charter, build, construct or otherwise acquire and own, equip, operate and maintain steam vessels, steam tugs, lighters, scows and other vessels and craft of any description, wharves, landings, docks, warehouses and other buildings, and to charge and collect transports, towage, wharfage and other dues from any person, persons, or body corporate making use of any of the Company's property, rights, and privileges, and generally to conduct and carry on a general shipping, towing and trading business, and to undertake agencies, and to conduct financial business of any kind otherwise than that of banking or insurance:

(i.) To lend money, on security or otherwise, to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company may be interested:

(j.) To enter into all such contracts with any person, persons or body corporate, and incur such liability as may be necessary, and which the Company shall think fit, for attaining all and any of the objects for which the Company is formed, and to assume, undertake and carry out contracts entered into by any person, persons or body corporate having objects altogether or in part identical with those of the Company:

(k.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government or authority, Imperial, foreign, Provincial, municipal or otherwise, or with any corporation, company or individual that may be conducive to the interests of the Company, and obtain from such Government, authority, company or individual all rights, concessions and privileges that the Company may deem desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with such arrangements, rights, and privileges and concessions:

(l.) To lay out sites for towns or villages on any lands of the Company:

(m.) To allot shares of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price of any mineral, property, water rights or mining rights or properties of any description, or in payment for machinery, plant, or other goods and chattels purchased by the Company, or in payment of wages, or for services rendered by any person or company, or in the conduct of its business, or in the placing, or assisting to place, any of the shares of the Company's capital stock, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or for any other valuable consideration:

(n.) To amalgamate with or acquire the business, property and assets of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To promote and form any company or companies for all or any of the objects mentioned herein, and to transfer, or procure to be transferred, to such other company or companies any or all of the property, business or undertakings of this Company, or which it may control, and to receive in payment or part therefor, shares, bonds, securities or property, and to bonus, subsidise or otherwise assist any such other companies:

(p.) To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount, transfer and assign, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, mortgages and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To obtain an Act of Parliament to enable the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(r.) To procure the Company to be registered or incorporated in any other country:

(s.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to attainment of any of the above mentioned objects.

Made, signed and acknowledged (in duplicate) by the above named George Lawson Milne, Alfred Cornelius Flumerfelt and Wellington Jeffers Dowler on the sixth day of May, A.D. 1897, before me at Victoria. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal.

CERTIFICATE OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE "NELSON-POORMAN GOLD MINING COMPANY, LIMITED."

Capital, $250,000.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Nelson-Poorman Gold Mining Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into one million shares of the par value of twenty-five cents each.

The registered office of the Company will be situate in the City of Nelson, District of West Kootenay, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

1. To purchase and acquire Lot 101, Group 1, Kootenay District of British Columbia, also known as the "Poorman" mineral claim, the "White," "Hardscrabble," "Hardup," "Election" and "Myemer" mineral claims, all situate in the Nelson Mining Division of the District of West Kootenay, in the Province of British Columbia, either for money or fully paid up and non-assessable shares of the Company, and to prospect, work, explore, develop and turn to account the said mineral claims.

2. To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, development, discovery, location, assignment or otherwise howsoever, and to hold in the District of West Kootenay, and elsewhere soever in the Province of British Columbia, mines or mineral claims or prospects, mining lands and rights, water rights and privileges, coal lands, timber lands and leases, mills and mining works, buildings, machinery, easements and privileges and surface rights, and to equip, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein.

3. To carry on the business of miners of every description, and to procure, by purchase or otherwise, mine and work mining locations, mines, ores, minerals, gold dust, and all metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, and to pay for such mines, mining interests and mining property either in money or by allotment of shares in this Company.

4. To carry on the business of smelters, refiners, founders, assayers, dealers in bullion, metals and products of every nature in connection therewith.

5. To carry on the business of buyers and sellers of and dealers in all kinds of ores, minerals, gold dust, mineral substances and compounds.

6. To manage, develop, improve, prospect or work all or any mines and mineral claims of every description, whether placer, quartz, or otherwise howsoever, and whether belonging to the Company or not, and to work up and manufacture the product of any mines in any way they may think fit, and to crush, wash, smelt, and otherwise render the ores marketable, as they may deem best.

7. To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, and to hold, work, manage, improve, sell and turn to account any lands, tenements, water rights and privileges, and to sell, mortgage, lease, sublet or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein.

8. To apply for, accept, take, hold, sell, dispose of and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations and other securities of any other company or companies, corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, as they may deem fit.

9. To purchase, take on lease or exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property which may seem to the Company conducive to its objects, directly or indirectly, or capable of becoming profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's objects, property or rights.

10. To enter into any agreement or agreements with any Government, supreme, local, municipal or otherwise, that may seem beneficial to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any subsidy, right or rights, or privileges which the Company may deem it advisable to obtain, and to purchase any such subsidy, rights or privileges from any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, and to carry out, exercise and comply with such arrangement, right or privilege.

11. To accept donations from any person or persons, firm or firms, company or corporation.

12. To carry out any of its objects, either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by themselves or through any person or persons acting as agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and as either principal, agents, trustee, contractor or otherwise.

13. To take and otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having its objects altogether or in any part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to amalgamate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person or persons carrying on, or about to carry on, any business similar altogether or in part to that of this Company.

14. To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

IN THE MATTER OF THE "BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES' ACT, 1891."

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED. James L. Brown, John N. Moore and Don C. MacKenzie, all of the City of Kamloops, in the Province of British Columbia, do declare as follows:—

1. We desire to incorporate a society under the provisions of the "Benevolent Societies Act, 1891," to be called the "Primrose Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias."

2. The purposes for which the Society is formed are as follows:—

(a.) To provide by means of contributions, subscriptions, donations or otherwise, a fund or funds out of which to relieve the needs and distress of the members of "Primrose Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias," and their families, widows and orphan children, and for the relief of the poor and destitute, and to meet the expenses of the Society:

(b.) To provide means and to promote social intercourse among its members and mutual helpfulness, mental and moral improvement and rational recreation.

3. The first trustees or managing officers shall be the said James L. Brown, John N. Moore and Don C. MacKenzie, who shall manage the affairs of the Society until the first Wednesday in January, 1898, and who shall hold office for the period of three years, two years and one year from the first Wednesday in January, 1897.

4. The successors of the said trustees or managing officers shall be appointed as follows:—

On the first Wednesday in January, 1898, or at the last meeting of the Society before that date, on that and in each succeeding year the Society shall, by ballot, elect one trustee or managing officer for the term of three years, in the place of the trustee whose term of office then expires. If a vacancy shall occur through the death, retirement, or otherwise, of any of the trustees the same may be filled by ballot at any regular meeting for the balance of the unexpired term of the trustee so dying or retiring.

In testimony whereof we have signed this declaration and attached the seal of the said "Primrose Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias," this 4th day of May, A.D. 1897.

Signed by the above-named James L. Brown, John N. Moore and Don C. MacKenzie, in the presence of

Notary Public.

I hereby certify that the foregoing declaration appears to me to be in conformity with the "Benevolent Societies' Act, 1891."

CERTIFICATE OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE "MINERAL CITY TOWNSITE COMPANY, LIMITED."

Capital, $21,600.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Mineral City Townsite Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-one thousand six hundred dollars, divided into four hundred and thirty-two shares, of the par value of fifty dollars each.

The registered office of the Company will be situate in the City of Rossland, in the Province of British Columbia.

The time of the existence of the Company shall be 50 years.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To purchase, either for money or fully paid up shares of the Company's stock, all that piece or parcel of land contained in and known as the Mineral City Townsite, situate on Cariboo Creek, in the Kootenay District, in the Province of British Columbia, and being composed of lot number eleven hundred and eighty-three (No. 1,183), in group one (1), in the said District of Kootenay; or other townsites, pre-emptions, real estate, timber, coal, or timber and coal lands within said Province or elsewhere; or to take on lease, hire, bond or otherwise acquire such lands; and to sell, rent, lease and deal in real estate, timber, timber limits, rights, leases and privileges, and coal, coal lands, rights and privileges. All shares issued in payment for said lands shall, ipso facto, be fully paid and non-assessable:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease, bond, locate or otherwise acquire and prospect, explore, work, operate, develop, deal in, hold and turn to account any mines, mining interests, mineral claims, mineral lands and properties within the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere, and to carry on the business of miners, prospectors and mining promoters of every description:

(c.) To lease, purchase, acquire, hold, or erect or construct houses and buildings of every description: mills, factories, dredges, ditches, flumes, aqueducts, reservoirs, or other systems of water ways, and operate, equip, maintain, aid in or subscribe towards the construction, maintenance or improvement thereof:

(d.) To carry on the business of dredging, hydraulic engineering or other process or processes of mining; to buy, sell, bond, stake, mortgage, explore, equip and operate mines, construct, operate, lease, buy and sell mills, concentrators, smelters, and other mining, milling and ore-working and transportation machinery, equipment, adjuncts and appliances; also to buy, sell, ship and generally deal in ores and other mine products; and also to operate in the stocks, bonds, mortgages and other securities of other mining or ore-working companies or corporations:

(e.) To erect, construct, build, lease, acquire, by purchase or otherwise, and operate, equip, maintain, aid in or subscribe towards the construction, maintenance or improvement of roads, trails, railways of every kind, tramways, rolling stock, electric light and other electric plants, and all other things which may be necessary or convenient for any of the purposes of this Company, or to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(f.) To buy, lease, acquire, hold, erect or build, manage and run hotels, lodging houses, tenements, apartments, restaurants and dining rooms; also to lease, hire or rent rooms, store-rooms and flats:

(g.) To borrow or raise money by the issue of or upon mortgages, bonds, debentures, preference shares, promissory notes or other obligations of this Company; to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's property, income or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing such mortgages, bonds, debentures, preference shares, promissory notes or other obligations:

(h.) To issue, subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations or securities of any Government, authority, company or corporation:

(i.) To take and carry on the business of financial agents, insurance agents, real estate agents, brokers and dealers in all kinds of property, real and personal, and generally to do all kinds of commercial business, except banking and insurance:

(j.) To import, export, trade, purchase, sell, manufacture and deal in goods, wares, produce and merchandise of every description:

(k.) To make advances in cash, goods or other supplies to other persons, companies or firms, and to take and hold real or personal property as security for the same:

(m.) To draw, accept, indorse, discount, buy, sell, exchange, negotiate and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons and other negotiable instruments and securities:

(n.) To lease, purchase, acquire and hold patents, franchises, licences and copyrights:

(o.) To act as executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator, assignee or trustee of any property, real or personal, and generally to act as bailee of any or all kinds of personal property and effects, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed:

(p.) To undertake and execute any trusts:

(q.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the rights and privileges of this Company, and undertaking its liabilities, and for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(s.) To sell, lease, rent, exchange, mortgage, manage, improve, develop, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any other company, person or persons carrying on, or about to carry on any business, or works, or undertaking which this Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the Company:

(u.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by brokers, capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, merchants and persons of any corporation, company, or individual, and to do all things incidental to the management, winding up or disposition of such estate, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed:

(v.) To do all such things as are incidental and conducive to the attainment of these objects.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 2nd day of June, 1897.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,

IN THE MATTER OF THE "BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES' ACT, 1891."

WE, the undersigned, Donald R. McDonald, John Fulcher, Francis A. Anley and Robert Cessford, all of Union, in the Province of British Columbia, do declare as follows:—

1. We desire to incorporate a Society under the provisions of the "Benevolent Societies' Act, 1891," to be called "Union Lodge, No. 11, I. O. O. F."

2. The purposes for which the Society is formed are:

(a.) To provide, by means of contributions, donations, and otherwise, a fund or funds out of which to relieve the distress and needs of the members of the Society, and their widows and orphan children, and for the relief of the poor and destitute:

(b.) To provide means for and to promote social intercourse amongst its members, and mutual helpfulness, mutual and moral improvement and rational recreation:

(c.) For establishing and maintaining refuge homes for women and children, and generally for all purposes, not contrary to the said Act, necessary to carry on the said Society.

3. The first managing officers shall be the said Donald R. McDonald, John Fulcher, Francis A. Anley and Robert Cessford. Their successors shall be elected by ballot every six months at the last regular meeting in May and November of each year.

In testimony whereof we have signed this declaration (in duplicate) this 31st day of May, A.D. 1897.

Signed by the above-named Donald R. McDonald, John Fulcher, Francis A. Anley and Robert Cessford in the presence of

[L.S.] JAMES ABRAMS,
A Notary Public in and for the Province of British Columbia.

I hereby certify that the foregoing declaration appears to me to be in conformity with the "Benevolent Societies' Act, 1891."

"Quod-Attestor."

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar-General.

Filed (in duplicate) the 7th day of June, 1897.

MATSQUI LOAN BY-LAW, 1897.

A By-Law to authorise the Municipal Council of the Corporation of Matsqui to borrow the sum of one thousand five hundred ($1,500) dollars in anticipation of its revenue for 1897.

WHEREAS it is requisite to provide funds for the payment of the current legal expenditure and liabilities which become payable out of the annual revenue before the revenue of the year is received from the taxpayers:

Be it therefore enacted by the Reeve and Council of the Corporation of Matsqui, pursuant to the provisions of the "Municipal Act, 1892," and its amendments, as follows:—

1. The Council are hereby authorised to borrow on the credit of the Corporation of Matsqui from any person or persons, company or corporate body, willing to advance the same, the sum of one thousand five hundred ($1,500) dollars of lawful money of Canada, and to pay therefor a rate of interest not to exceed eight (8) per centum per annum; the principal and interest shall be payable on or before the 31st day of December, 1897.

2. The obligation to be given in acknowledgment of the liability hereby created shall be a promissory note or notes, signed by the Reeve, the Finance Committee (if any) and the Clerk of the Council, and sealed with the Corporation seal.

3. This by-law to take effect as soon as adopted.

This by-law may be cited for all purposes as the "Matsqui Temporary Loan By-Law, 1897."

Done and passed in open Council on this 24th day of April, 1897.

MAPLE RIDGE BY-LAWS.

A BY-LAW

To provide for all the necessary expenses of the Municipality and payment of obligations for the year 1897.

WHEREAS it is necessary and expedient that proper provision be made to meet the necessary expenses of the Municipality of Maple Ridge during the year 1897:

And whereas it is necessary and expedient to raise and levy the sum of $248.00 under the provisions of the "Haney Hall Purchase By-Law, 1896," during the year 1897:

Be it therefore enacted by the Reeve and Council of the Municipality of Maple Ridge as follows:—

1. The terms "land," "improvements" and "wild land" shall have the meaning set forth in section 2 of the "Municipal Clauses Act, 1896."

2. There is hereby settled, imposed and levied, and there shall be raised and collected, an equal rate of one and one-sixth mills upon the dollar upon all the land upon the revised Assessment Roll for the year 1897 of the said Municipality, at its assessed value thereon, under the provisions of the "Haney Hall Purchase By-Law, 1896."

3. There is hereby settled, imposed and levied, and there shall be raised and collected, an equal rate of one per centum upon all the land (other than wild land) upon the revised Assessment Roll for the year 1897 of the said Municipality, at its assessed value thereon.

4. There is hereby settled, imposed and levied, and there shall be raised and collected, an equal rate of two and one-half per centum on all wild land upon the revised Assessment Roll for the year 1897 of the said Municipality, at its assessed value thereon.

5. Improvements, other than railway property, shall, during the year 1897, be exempt from taxation.

6. Every male person of not less than 21 and not over 50 years of age, who has resided in the Municipality of Maple Ridge for thirty days or more in the year 1897, and who is not otherwise assessed by the said Municipality, shall be liable to perform statute labour for two days on the roads or highways in the said Municipality during the year 1897.

7. Every person, whether resident or non-resident, assessed upon the Assessment Roll shall be liable to perform statute labour during the year 1897, as set forth in section 161, sub-section (b), of the said "Municipal Clauses Act, 1896."

8. During the year 1897 the commutation in lieu of statute labour is hereby fixed at the rate of one and one-half dollars per day.

9. The aforesaid rates and taxes shall be due and payable to the Collector of the said Municipality, at his office, at Port Hammond, on the fifteenth day of July, 1897.

10. All persons who pay all the aforesaid rates and taxes on or before the fifteenth day of October, 1897, shall be entitled to a discount or reduction of one-sixth of the amount thereof, save and except upon commutation of statute labour upon which no discount or reduction shall be made.

11. All rates and taxes which are unpaid on the 31st day of December, 1897, shall bear interest therefrom until paid in full, at the rate of six per centum per annum thereon.

12. This by-law may be cited as the "Revenue By-Law, 1897."

Passed the Council this eighth day of May, 1897.

Reconsidered and finally passed, and the Corporate Seale appended this fifth day of June, 1897.

NELSON CITY BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW NO. 8.

A By-Law to Regulate the Issuance of Licences for the Several Trades, Occupations, Professions and Businesses herein set forth.

THE Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Nelson enacts as follows:—

1. From and after the passing of this by-law every person using or following any of the trades, occupations, professions or businesses herein mentioned within the limits of the City of Nelson shall take out a periodical licence therefor, for such period as is herein set forth, paying for such licence such periodical sum as is herein specified, which said sum shall be paid in advance to the person authorised to collect such sums for the municipality.

(1.) Every person vending spirituous or fermented liquors by retail, for each house or place where such vending is carried on, two hundred and fifty dollars for every six months:

(2.) Every person not having a retail licence under sub-sections (1) or (4) or (5) of this clause, who sells, barter or traffics by retail in fermented, spirituous or other liquors in a shop, store or place other than an inn, saloon, ale or beer house, or other house of public entertainment, in quantities of not less than a reputed pint bottle at any one time to any one person, where the liquor is at the time of sale taken off the premises in the original package or bottle, for each house or place where such vending is carried on, two hundred dollars for every six months:

(3.) Every person not having a retail licence as above, and vending spirituous or fermented liquors by wholesale, that is to say, in quantities of not less than two gallons, for each house or place, fifty dollars for every six months:

(4.) Every person who keeps a restaurant, and supplies beer or porter or wines with meals, and not otherwise, fifty dollars for every six months:

(5.) Every person vending wines, spirits, beer or other fermented or intoxicating liquor by retail in any building in use as an hotel, and containing not less than thirty rooms actually furnished and used for hotel purposes, one hundred and fifty dollars for every six months:

(6.) Every person keeping a saloon or building where a billiard table is use for hire or profit, five dollars for each table for every six months:

(7.) Every person keeping a bowling alley or rifle gallery, five dollars for every six months:

(8.) Every person selling opium, except chemists and druggists using the same in preparation of prescriptions of medical practitioners, one hundred dollars for every six months:

(9.) Every person carrying on the business of a wholesale, or of a wholesale and retail merchant or trader, ten dollars for every six months:

(10.) Every retail trader, five dollars for every six months; such two last mentioned licences to enable the person paying the same to change his place of business at pleasure, but not to carry on business at two places at the same time under one licence:

(11.) Every hawker or peddler, fifty dollars for every six months:

(12.) Every person who either on his own behalf or as agent for another or others, sells, solicits or takes orders for the sale by retail of goods, wares or merchandise, to be supplied or furnished by any person or firm doing business outside of the municipality, fifty dollars for every six months:

(13.) Every person who keeps or carries on a public wash-house or laundry, five dollars for every six months:

(14.) Every person carrying on the business of a pawnbroker, one hundred and twenty-five dollars for every six months:

(15.) Every owner or owners of cabs, buggies, waggon, carts, carriages, omnibusses and other vehicles kept for hire, two dollars and fifty cents per half-year for every such vehicle: Provided that no person or company holding four licences under this sub-section shall be liable at the same time to take out or pay for a licence in respect of the livery stable at which the vehicle mentioned in such licence is kept;

(16.) Every livery stable keeper, ten dollars for every six months:

(17.) Every person owning a pack-animal, dray, waggon or omnibus, used in transporting goods and passengers, or either, for profit or hire, two dollars and fifty cents for every six months:

(18.) Every person carrying on, on his own account, the business of a banker, fifty dollars for every six months:

(19.) Every person practising as a barrister or solicitor, twelve dollars and fifty cents for every six months:

(20.) Every person, other than a barrister or solicitor, who has taken out a licence to practise as such, following the occupation of a conveyancer, land agent, insurance agent or mining broker, twelve dollars and fifty cents for every six months:

(21.) Every auctioneer, not being a government officer selling by auction government property, or sheriff or sheriff's officer or bailiff selling lands, goods or chattels taken in execution or for the satisfaction of rent or taxes, in addition to any other licence before mentioned, fifty dollars for every six months:

(22.) Every person who exhibits a public circus or menagerie, two hundred dollars for each day of such exhibition:

(23.) From the proprietor, lessee or manager of any theatre, concert hall or other place of amusement, entertainment or exhibition, according to the seating capacity of such theatre, concert hall or other place of amusement, entertainment or exhibition, allowing twenty-two inches for each seat, the amounts following:—

(a.) For every such place seating nine hundred and seventy-five persons or more, an amount not exceeding three hundred dollars for one year, or not exceeding one hundred dollars for three months, or not exceeding fifty dollars for one month, or not exceeding five dollars for one day:

(b.) For every such place seating less than nine hundred and seventy-five persons, an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars for one year, or not exceeding seventy-five dollars for three months, or not exceeding forty dollars for one month, or not exceeding five dollars for one day. All licences issued under the provisions of this sub-section shall be known and designated as "theatre licences," but no licence shall be required in respect of any exhibition, concert or other entertainment for the benefit of any church, school or hospital, or any charitable entertainments by any amateur dramatic association or literary society:

(24.) From every person following, within the municipality, any trade, occupation or calling not hereinbefore enumerated, or who enters into or carries on any contract or agreement to perform any work or furnish any material, five dollars for every six months: Provided, always, that no person employed as a journeyman, or for wages only, and not employing any other person or persons, or not having a regular place of business, shall be subject to the provisions of this sub-section:

(25.) Every telephone company and electric light company, fifty dollars for every six months:

(26.) For a licence to exhibit wax works, circus riding, rope walking, dancing, tumbling or other acrobatic or gymnastic performance, wild animals or hippodrome, sparring, boxing, sleight of hand, legerdemain, jugglery or other like tricks, pictures, paintings, statuary, works of art, natural or artificial curiosities, tableaux, wonderful animals or freaks of nature, or any other exhibition kept for hire or profit when the same is exhibited elsewhere than in a theatre, music or concert hall, or other building or place duly licensed, for each day of such exhibition a fee of five dollars:

(27.) Every astrologer, seer, fortune teller and clairvoyant, fifty dollars for every six months.

2. The form of licence shall be in accordance with the Schedule C annexed to and forming part of the "Municipal Clauses Act, 1896," and all licences granted under this by-law shall terminate on the 15th day of July and the 15th day of January, respectively, and no proportionate reduction shall be made on account of any person or persons commencing business between these dates.

3. All licences granted under authority of this by-law shall be issued by the person authorised for that purpose by the Council: Provided, always, that no licence for the sale of liquors shall be issued except by an order from the Board of Licence Commissioners.

4. This by-law may be cited for all purposes as "Trades Licence By-Law No. 8, 1897."
